

The Director Central Intelligence

Washington, D.C. 20505

18 November 1985

Dear Ben,

I don't know anything about anyone being frozen out of the Yurchenko communique, whatever that is. I'm disappointed that you should think that if I wanted to "discipline" you I would not want to do it in a more forthright way.

Regards.

Yours,

William J. Casey

Mr. Benjamin C. Bradlee
Executive Editor
The Washington Post
1150 - 15th Street, N.W.
Washington, D. C. 20071

14 NOV 1985

The Washington Post

1150 15TH STREET, N. W.

WASHINGTON, D. C. 20071

(202) 334-6000

BENJAMIN C. BRADLEE
EXECUTIVE EDITOR
(202) 334-7510

November 11, 1985

Dear Bill:

I hope we weren't frozen out of the Yurchenko communique because you think this was a wise and adult way of disciplining us.

Cheers,

*Dear Ben - I don't know anything about anyone being frozen out of the Yurchenko communique, whatever that is. I'm disappointed that you should think that if I wanted to "discipline"
you I would not want to do it in a more forthright way.
Regards Bill Casey*

The Honorable
William E. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C.
20505

18 NOV 1985